

PROJECT TITLE

Public participation: a sustainable approach to landscape design & development

CLIENT

LOCAL AND GOVERNMENTAL AUTHORITIES, PRIVATE COMPANIES, ORGANISATIONS, EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS, HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS, CONTRACTORS, ENVIRONMENTAL BODIES, LOCAL COMMUNITIES

OUR TEAM

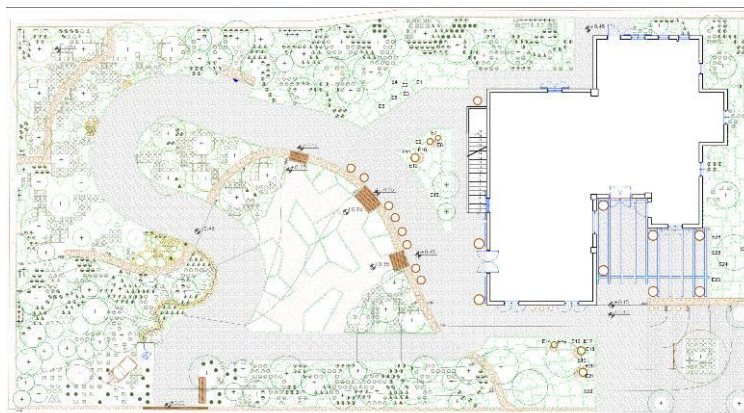

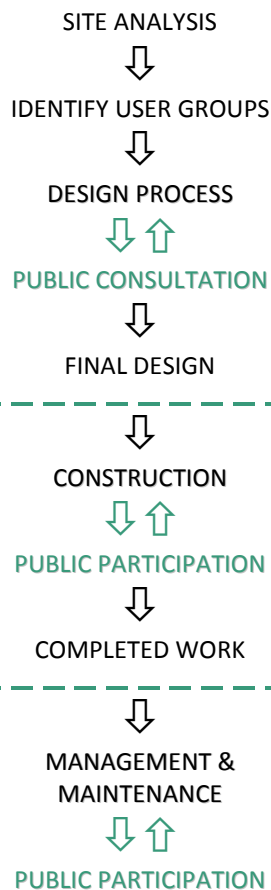

DR. ANGELIKI PARASKEVOPOULOU (aparas@aua.gr)

DR. MARIA PAPAFOU (mpapaf@aua.gr)

OBJECTIVES / ΣΚΟΠΟΣ

Peoples' collaboration in the design process of open spaces is an approach to placemaking. The aim is to design and create places rather than spaces and contribute to the development of sustainable landscapes.

METHODS / ΜΕΘΟΔΟΛΟΓΙΑ

ROSTOCK, GERMANY, Garden Design of Hellenic Pavilion awarded 3rd place in International Garden Exhibition (2003).

PROJECTS / ΕΡΓΑ

Participatory design could be employed in any public or private open space of communal use: parks, squares, gardens, playgrounds, schoolyards, open spaces for adolescents, business parks, garden exhibitions, and many more.
